Custodial history

Materials were collected by Carolyn Hegberg, who donated them to the Archives in 2016-2017.

Scope and content

Collection consists of four items relating to the early history of Simon Fraser University: a copy of the program for the university's opening ceremonies on September 9, 1965; an invitation and ticket to the President's Ball held in October 1965; and a copy of the first SFU Yearbook (1965-66).

Title notes

Arrangement

Collection is arranged into three files.

Alternative form available

Analogue originals were digitized by the archivist in May 2017. Preservation copies were made as tiff files (each page a separate tiff). Scanning resolution was calculated to produce a tiff with 4000 pixels on the longest side. PDF copies were then made as the access copies. The PDFs are directly available online in SFU AtoM; the preservation copies are available on request.

Restrictions on access

Files are open with no restrictions.

Conditions governing use

Materials in the collection are copyright-protected and copyright ownership is mixed. The Archives makes SFU-owned works made available under Creative Commons License CC BY-NC (Attribution-NonCommercial); for license details, see <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>.
