Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Lewis Warsh is an American poet who lived with the poet Anne Waldman in New York City, and co-founded Angel Hair Magazine and Books with Waldman. He is the co-editor of United Artists Magazine and Books, and the author of several books of poetry and fiction.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of correspondence (with manuscript and typescript enclosures) from Anne Waldman to Lewis Marsh, much of it pertaining to the relationship between the two poets, as well as to relationships with other poets. Their involvement in the Naropa Institute is also described. Most of the letters from 1969 to 1973 concern the publishing of Angel Hair Books and contain much information about the New York poetry world centred at the Poetry Project.
