PREREQUISITE: SPAN 103 or equivalent. COURSE CONTENT:

This course is the first half of second year Spanish. Students will be transferring their structural knowledge into performance and actual use of the language. The emphasis is on further development of oral command and reading and writing skills. Spanish 201 reviews and expands on grammatical concepts previously learned. It also requires that students produce simple compositions based on short stories. By the end of the semester students will be able to function in a Spanish speaking environment.
