CHANCELLOR'S WELCOME

I welcome you to our Spring 2019 Simon Fraser University Convocation with both joy in the occasion and pride in your accomplishments.

The word Convocation means “calling together”. This is the hour and this is the place for your peers, mentors, supporters, family, friends and admirers to gather together to recognize and celebrate your accomplishments.

Simon Fraser's Convocation continues a tradition of learning and achievement that began with the earliest institutions of higher education many centuries ago. Our various caps, gowns, hoods, certificates and diplomas, together with the procession of scholars, pipe and drum, mace and claymore, all serve to remind us that we are part of a remarkable human history of commitment to enquiry and scholarship.

The first Convocation of Simon Fraser University took place on September 9, 1965, when 2,500 charter students crossed the threshold of this institution and headed out to put their new skills into use. On that date, over 50 years ago, those students made the same commitment to continued discovery, learning, listening and dialogue that you now embody.

Look around Convocation Mall and you can see that the youthful, creative and yes, even radical energy that characterized SFU in 1965 continues to flourish. In the intervening years we have grown not just in size and numbers but also in collective spirit and purpose. Our three campuses welcome more than 30,000 students each year, and today's graduates join an alumni family that numbers over 160,000, and spans the world. While our work and further studies will take us all over the globe, in this era of connectedness we are undivided by geography or undertaking. We, the people of SFU, are linked by our common roots. We share a foundation that will be an ongoing source of support and strength for us all.

Today is the moment to celebrate and honour the effort and accomplishments of our students and those who have taught and nourished them. But this is not a leave-taking. The ceremony of Convocation is not an end point. It is not your destination. Instead, Convocation is a way station on your journey of lifelong learning and your path of passionate engagement.

Travel well. Shed light for those who travel in the dark. Be curious. Be creative. Be a force for good. Show the world that SFU has helped you to become your best self.

And be sure your journey sometimes brings you back to this place, these people, your own SFU. I for one can't wait to welcome you again, as continuing students, as teachers, as colleagues, as mentors, as parents, as supporters and as friends.

Anne Giardini, O.C., O.B.C., Q.C.
Chancellor

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

The skirling of the pipes, the procession across the pond, the conferring of degrees: Convocation at Simon Fraser University is a glorious ritual and a fitting recognition of an academic job well done.

I join with your family and friends – and other generous souls who supported you on your university journey – in applauding this important accomplishment.

Simon Fraser University was founded over 50 years ago with a mission to be a different kind of university. From our original campus high atop Burnaby Mountain, to our transformative presence in downtown Vancouver and in Surrey City Centre, SFU has always had a strong commitment to contribute to society, to embrace new initiatives and to engage deeply with communities near and far.

This June, our graduates join a diverse community of more than 160,000 SFU alumni living in more than 140 countries – and truly engaging the world.

I encourage you to continue the SFU tradition to blaze your own trail and to make a positive impact on society. This university is built on the premise that the greatest innovations in history have come from people bold enough to explore new frontiers and to take novel approaches.

W.B. Yeats observed: “Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire.” I see that fire burning brightly within each of you today – a flame that will sustain you in the years to come.

Hearty congratulations to our graduates, and thank you all for being part of this happy occasion.

Andrew Petter, C.M., Q.C.
President and Vice-Chancellor

As President of SFU's Alumni Association, I congratulate you on receiving an academic credential from SFU! This is an accomplishment that has taken significant time, energy, and support to achieve.

I also welcome you as lifetime members of our dynamic and diverse worldwide network that is now more than 160,000 strong in over 140 countries. The community you are joining is vast, spans all industries and sectors, and includes alumni who graduated more than 50 years ago.

SFU and our Alumni Association are your lifelong partners. As your journey continues, we are here to help you expand your personal and professional network through our events and initiatives, and to support your success by offering a selection of alumni benefits that include career services, library services, and preferred rates on programs that address your personal and professional interests and development.

We will be reaching out to ask you to remain engaged by helping us advance and enhance the experience for future graduates. There are many helpful and rewarding capacities in which you can give back including serving as a mentor, guest speaker, co-op advocate, research partner, and donor.

Please keep your email and mailing addresses up to date with SFU so we can help you make and maintain connections, inform you of upcoming events, and let you know about opportunities to remain involved and engaged with our great university.

Like any strong community, we take pride in your accomplishments – so please keep us informed of your life journey, and watch our social media channels for information on the accomplishments of fellow grads.

Alumni are SFU's greatest ambassadors; thank you in advance for helping to showcase the value of your SFU education and the impact that it will have as you engage the world.

HISTORY

The university is named after Simon Fraser, loyalist, fur-trader and explorer, who in 1808 completed one of the greatest journeys in the annals of Canadian history by descending the mighty river which today bears his name.

In January 1963, a report recommended the creation of a new university in the Lower Mainland — two months later the establishment of Simon Fraser University received formal assent in the British Columbia Legislature, and Dr Gordon M. Shrum was appointed the first Chancellor.

From a variety of sites, the Chancellor recommended the top of 1,200 foot high Burnaby Mountain, with its magnificent views of Burrard Inlet, the Coast Mountains, the Fraser River and Vancouver harbour. The then district of Burnaby donated the land for the university. The Vancouver firm of Erickson/Massey won the design competition, but the four runner-up architects each designed at least one building within the overall plan. Construction began in the spring of 1964 and eighteen months later, on September 9, 1965, Simon Fraser University opened to 2,500 charter students.

Since then the university has expanded, first in downtown Vancouver and subsequently in the Surrey Central district. The Vancouver campus has grown from a modest storefront offering night school classes in the early '80s to the largest post-secondary institution downtown. SFU Vancouver's nine sites offer degree and continuing studies opportunities for students of all ages and include several galleries, innovation centres, a student residence and the internationally renowned Morris J Wosk Centre for Dialogue. SFU's Vancouver campus celebrates 30 years of learning, research and community engagement in 2019.

Since 2002, SFU's Surrey campus has helped define and shape Surrey's city centre. The campus offers a diverse number of undergraduate, graduate and continuing studies courses and is home to world-class, leading edge research in health, energy and creative technologies. It also supports a thriving entrepreneurial learning environment. The campus currently occupies a stunning facility designed by renowned architect Bing Thom. In the fall of 2019, the Surrey campus will open its newest building. This 160,000 square foot building, the last building designed by the late Bing Thom, will house SFU's new sustainable energy engineering program, and features innovative labs and a 400-seat lecture theatre for both academic and community use.

Simon Fraser University has been characterized by its adventurous spirit, openness and willingness to embrace bold initiatives. SFU's unique educational programs, inspired research and vibrant community relations have set it apart from other universities — in BC and in Canada.

GOVERNOR GENERAL'S GOLD MEDAL

Awarded to the two graduate students who achieve the highest academic standing upon graduation from a master's or doctoral degree program.

Dr Jennifer (Jenn) Burt, PhD, Environment

Tuesday, June 11, 9:45 AM

Dr Jennifer (Jenn) Burt's thesis focused on the complex social-ecological dynamics associated with the recovery of sea otters, a notorious predator and architect of change in coastal ecosystems. Her research revealed that complementarity between otters and a sea star mesopredator functions to enhance the resilience of kelp forests. Dr Burt also synthesized the opportunities and barriers for coastal Indigenous communities coexisting with the profound changes triggered by sea otters, linking quantitative measures of adaptive capacity to issues of social justice in resource management. She recently became the BC Marine Program Lead for Nature United, tasked to find innovative solutions to the social-ecological challenges that face Canada's Pacific coast.

Dr Yu Yang, PhD, Applied Sciences

Tuesday, June 11, 9:45 AM

Dr Yu Yang's thesis sought to create algorithmic tools to leverage the power of social propagations in marketing applications. His research solved a number of crucial problems in social marketing, including tracking top influential users in a constantly evolving social network and how to motivate influential users to trigger effective social propagations for marketing purposes. Dr Yang's research studies were published in top conferences and journals and have also attracted attention from industry, including companies like Alipay and Facebook. After finishing his PhD, he joined the School of Data Science at the City University of Hong Kong as an assistant professor.

GRADUATE DEAN'S MEDAL

Recognize graduating students from each faculty whose cumulative grade point average places them in the top five per cent of their class.

Dr Omar Ibrahim, PhD, Applied Sciences

Tuesday, June 11, 9:45 AM

For his research, Dr Omar Ibrahim focused on identifying practical utility for microfluidic battery technology. He achieved a 4.33 CGPA, received many awards and authored/co-authored more than 10 peer-reviewed articles. With an international collaboration, he co-invented a biodegradable battery to address hazardous battery waste. This invention was recognized internationally and led to a $50,000 seed grant from the Bill Gates Foundation. Dr Ibrahim also initiated a collaboration with IBM Zurich for simultaneous powering and cooling of future computing systems, resulting in a MITACS Globalink grant. Currently, he is engaged as head of microfluidics research at a local start-up.

Ms Victoria Postlethwaite, MRM, Environment

Tuesday, June 11, 9:45 AM

For her master's research, Ms Victoria Postlethwaite studied carbon storage and accumulation in eelgrass meadows in Clayoquot Sound, along the west coast of Vancouver Island. This research showed that there is significant carbon storage in eelgrass meadows that can contribute to climate change mitigation strategies. However, this storage is less than that of more tropical ecosystems. During her master's program, she achieved a 4.00 GPA and received multiple awards and grants, including a Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC) award to support her research.

Dr Sean Godwin, PhD, Science

Tuesday, June 11, 2:30 PM

For his PhD thesis, Dr Sean Godwin studied the impacts of salmon farming on wild salmon. He discovered parasites from salmon farms are associated with reduced growth and feeding success for wild salmon in BC. He also identified several ways we can improve parasite management on salmon farms, in order to help protect wild salmon populations. During his PhD, he received four best-talk awards at conferences, one award for teaching excellence as a graduate student, and over $200,000 in scholarships and research grants. Dr Godwin is now a Liber Ero postdoctoral fellow at Dalhousie University.

Dr Sanam Shafaat Talab (Shafaattalab), PhD, Science Tuesday, June 11, 2:30 PM

Dr Sanam Shafaat Talab (Shafaattalab) came to SFU from the University of Tehran, Iran's premier university, to pursue research in Molecular and Cell Biology. Dr Shafaat Talab was one of the first in Canada to take blood cells from a patient, turn them into stem cells, which were then reprogrammed into beating heart cells. Her work was instrumental in showing that sudden cardiac arrest in infants can explain some cases of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) and was published in the prestigious journal Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. The impact of Dr Shafaat Talab's research will have profound possibilities in the areas of health care.

Ms Mary Teegee, MBA, Business Wednesday, June 12, 2:30 PM

Ms Mary Teegee is Gitksan and Carrier from the Takla Nation. She comes from the Lax Gibuu Clan (Wolf) from the House of Nyuup. Her research proposes an approach to change health care and wellness amongst the communities of northern BC. She is an executive director for Carrier Sekani Family Services, president of the BC Aboriginal Childcare Society, and currently represents BC on the National Advisory Committee for First Nations Child and Family Services reform. She assisted in developing the Highway of Tears initiative and supports the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. Ms Teegee would like to dedicate her medal to her son, Noah Teegee and her niece, Miranda.

Dr Kyeong-min Kim, PhD, Arts and Social Sciences Thursday, June 13, 9:45 AM

For his thesis, Dr Kyeong-min Kim investigated the syntactic and interpretative properties of three Korean anaphora, third-person pronouns, VP anaphora, and null objects using experimental methodologies. He found that there is inter-speaker variation in the bindability of Korean third-person pronouns, allowing him to demonstrate that VP anaphors are unanalyzable pro-forms, while null objects are derived from ellipsis. He believes that his doctoral study will serve as a useful starting point for any future research on the syntax of other Korean anaphoric items.

GRADUATE DEAN'S MEDAL

Dr Natalie Knight, PhD, Arts and Social Sciences Thursday, June 13, 9:45 AM

Dr Natalie Knight is Yurok from northern California and Navajo from New Mexico. Her ethically informed dissertation shows the ways that Indigenous people who have been adopted out of communities, raised in foster care, survived residential schools, or descended from survivors, can rebuild and regain their political, social and economic practices of Indigeneity. She was awarded a Vanier Canada Graduate Scholarship and worked with many Indigenous people in reinstating SFU's Aboriginal University Prep Program. She is an organizer with the anti-colonial Red Roads Alliance. Dr Knight extends gratitude to the entire Indigenous community at SFU, and non-Indigenous comrades who uphold lifelong commitments to decolonization within educational institutions and beyond.

Dr Sylvia Blake, PhD, Communication, Art and Technology Friday, June 14, 9:45 AM

Dr Sylvia Blake's research examines the contested idea of diversity as a policy objective, with a focus on its historical origins and current mobilization in Canadian broadcasting policy. Her research provides an analytical model for better understanding historical and contemporary diversity objectives, and offers recommendations to realign Canadian policy objectives to foreground the social good. Her work has recently been awarded both the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission Prize for Policy Excellence and Beaverbrook Canadian Communications Association graduate research award. Dr Blake is a former chair of the International Association for Media and Communication Research Emerging Scholars' Network and was also a lecturer at SFU. Her studies were supported with a Bombardier Canada Graduate Scholarship and Canwest Global Graduate Fellowship.

Dr Zulfikar (Zul) Kanji, EdD, Education Friday, June 14, 2:30 PM

For his dissertation, Dr Zulfikar (Zul) Kanji explored psychosocial, academic, and organizational influences that affect student persistence in post-secondary education, from the perspectives of first-year UBC students who were institutionally dismissed. He discovered that academic under-preparedness, large university class sizes and faculty-student relationships were critical factors that contributed to students' unsuccessful academic outcomes. His research has led to recommendations for policy and practice aimed at enhancing student support. During his doctoral studies, Dr Kanji received two Faculty of Education Graduate Fellowships and published 14 peer-reviewed articles in health science and higher education journals.

GRADUATE DEAN'S MEDAL

Dr Dominic Trevisan, PhD, Education

Friday, June 14, 2:30 PM

Producing recognizable facial expressions may be just as important for successful social interaction as reading other's facial expressions despite being relatively less researched. Dr Dominic Trevisan's dissertation research investigated in what ways, and in what contexts, emotional facial expressions are atypical in autism, and the mechanisms contributing to atypical facial expressions. His dissertation research led to two peer-reviewed journal articles in top-tier autism journals, and press coverage from multiple news agencies. Dr Trevisan's doctoral research was supported by close to $200,000 in internal and external scholarships. He is continuing his research on emotion-processing in autism as a postdoctoral researcher at Yale University.

Dr Allison (Allie) Carter, PhD, Health Sciences

Friday, June 14, 2:30 PM

Her findings have important implications for improving the right of all women to have safe and satisfying sexual lives. She has received a number of awards and her work has been featured in a variety of news outlets. She also supports women living with HIV globally in positive, pleasure-focused storytelling for Life and Love with HIV, a platform launched and supported at SFU. She is currently a lecturer in sexual health at the Kirby Institute, University of New South Wales Sydney.

Dr Joe Schwarcz,
Doctor of Science, *honoris causa

McGill University professor Dr Joe Schwarcz is an award-winning chemist whose passion for his subject, and for science in general, extends to informative and entertaining public lectures, media appearances and books on topics ranging from the chemistry of love to the science of aging. As director of McGill University's Office for Science and Society, he strives to separate sense from nonsense. He has received numerous awards for teaching and for interpreting science to the public and is the only non-American to win the American Chemical Society's Grady-Stack Award for demystifying chemistry. He holds the 2010 Montreal Medal from the Canadian Chemical Institute for his lifetime contributions to chemistry in Canada, and the 2015 Balles Prize for critical thinking from the U.S.-based Committee for Skeptical Inquiry. An amateur magician, Dr Schwarcz often spices up his presentations with a little magic.

Doctor of Laws, *honoris causa

Dr Ruby Peter (Sti'tum'at) is a Coast Salish elder and one of the last remaining native speakers of her ancestral language, Hul'q'umi'num'. For six decades she has shared her cultural traditions as a language teacher and linguistic researcher.

She began her career as a translator and over the years has taught language students at all levels from pre-school to post-secondary. Since earning her diploma in indigenous languages in 1975, she has been documenting her language, creating lessons, stories and a dictionary. She is well-known as a public speaker, story-teller and language advocate. She is currently the lead consultant on four Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council grants. At age 86, Dr Peter still maintains a full schedule, assisting students in the SFU language proficiency programs and mentoring graduate students, training a new generation of language teachers.

Luther King and his wife Coretta, investigating civil rights cases. While living in Pakistan she strove to improve conditions in rural villages. In Vancouver, she became a public spokesperson and champion for those unable to speak for themselves, including prisoners, children-in-care and immigrants and refugees. Now a retired university lecturer, she has funded several awards and scholarships for post-secondary students in need, as well as an annual award for SFU Scottish Studies students who have demonstrated community service. ## OUR TRADITION

SYMBOLS OF SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

The original Coat of Arms was granted to the university in 1965 by the Lord Lyon, King of Arms, in Edinburgh. The 1965 arms was registered in Canada in 2007.

In 2007, the Canadian Heraldic Authority granted a modification of the Coat of Arms at the request of the university. The arms are based on the arms of Fraser of Lovat, from whom the university's namesake was descended via the Frasers of Culbokie. The blue quarters with white "fraises" i.e., strawberry flowers (a pun on the name Fraser) are the basic Fraser arms, while the white quarters with red crowns are those of Lovat. There are three books at the top of the shield, representing education. The heraldic description of the arms is: "Quarterly; first and fourth Azure three fraises Argent; second and third Argent three antique crowns Gules, all within a bordure quarterly Argent and Gules, on a chief Gules three open books proper, bound and edged Or."

The university's motto "Nous sommes prêts", meaning "We are ready", is a variation of the traditional motto of the Clan Fraser. The mace was commissioned by university architects Arthur Erickson and Geoffrey Massey, and was presented to the university at the opening ceremonies on September 9, 1965. The mace is 61 inches long and weighs 23 pounds. Pieces of cut and polished jade, which were taken from the university's jade boulder in the Academic Quadrangle reflecting pond, were set in silver by its designer, Haida artist Bill Reid. The mace is crowned by a silver stag's head, derived from the coat of arms of Lord Lovat, head of the Clan Fraser. The Fraser tradition was to fasten sprigs of yew in their bonnets before entering battle, and the mace was carved from twohundred- year-old yew, gathered on Burnaby Mountain by a resident in the 1940s.

Lord Lovat presented the university with a claymore, or great sword, on September 9, 1965. The claymore was first used by a Fraser at the Battle of Culloden Moor in 1746. It was also used by a Fraser at the Battle of the Plains of Abraham in 1759. The claymore is approximately 36 inches long and weighs two pounds.

The university's flag is based on the coat of arms, and was first flown at the Convocation ceremonies in June 1981.

REGALIA

The regalia worn today by our graduates has a colourful history.

Regalia originated in the monasteries of the Middle Ages. At that time, university faculty were men of religion who wore the habit of their Order when teaching. Over time, their garments came to identify their university. In Europe, laymen did not commonly teach in universities until the 19th century. Only by 1858, for example, did British law no longer require university dons to be in holy orders. Nevertheless, professors continued to wear clerical garb, with modifications in cut and design.

Regalia colours often matched those of the university patron, or of the city in which the university was located; Simon Fraser regalia combines the red and royal blue of the Clan Fraser. (The university motto "Nous sommes prêts" or "We are ready," parallels the Clan's "je suis prêt.")

The degree hood was originally part of the monk's habit — a carryall for food or other small items. Eventually, the hood became separate from the gown, variegated in colour, and emblematic of scholars and degrees from particular universities. Hoods in Canada and Europe are unique in design and colour to each degree and each university.

The history of the mortarboard worn by our Bachelors and Masters begins with high church dignitaries in the 16th century. These officials wore hats consisting of little more than a cap with a raised, squared crown. By the 18th century, the crown had evolved into a cloth-covered board, and the wearers into the deans and rectors of universities. The 19th century saw the top knob replaced by a tassel and the cap become required student attire. Reminded of the square board masons used to hold mortar, students dubbed the headgear a "mortarboard" — college slang of the day.

Doctoral hats are patterned after the Florentine hats in the time of the Medici. Students purchased hats of the appropriate university colours when continuing with advanced studies after completing the Bachelor degree.
