

Latin I

Humanities 161

Section: D100

Term: 1999 Fall

Instructor: John Aveline,

AQ 5128, 291-5378

Email: jcavelin@unixg.ubc.ca

Discussion Topics:

Latin I is an introduction to reading Latin which also provides a firm grasp of basic grammar. Students will find themselves progressing rapidly and learning as much about the English language and Roman culture as they do about Latin.

Latin is a fundamental course for a number of disciplines: law, medicine, sciences. Also, if you want to write better English, you've got to have Latin! It will be your Vade Mecum!
