

Introduction to Sustainable Community Development

Sustainable Community Develop. 201

Section: E100

Term: 2012 Fall

Instructor:

Discussion Topics: Builds an understanding of strengths and weaknesses of conventional approaches to development; rationale for alternative approaches; varying interpretations of community and of development; and essential components for creating local economic development strategies. Sustainable Community Development is introduced as a framework to meet current social and economic needs while ensuring adequate resources are available for future generations.

Grading:

Required Texts:

Recommended Texts:

Materials/Supplies:

Prerequisite/Corequisite: 30 credit hours, SCD Certificate program approval or permission of the Director for SCD. Not permitted for credit toward the SCD Post-Baccalaureate Diploma. Students who have taken CED 201 for credit may not take this course for further credit.

Notes: Students may not take this course concurrently with upper division, 400-level, SCD courses.

First required course for SCD Certificate.

This outline is derived from a course outline repository database that was maintained by SFU Student Services and the University's IT Services Department. The database was retired in 2014 and the data migrated to SFU Archives in 2015.