

CENTRE FOR COMMUNICATIONS AND THE ARTS

FORTHCOMING EVENTS:

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2 12.45 p.m.

The Theatre

(Admission Free)

LUNCH-HOUR CONCERT

Marlies Schoenfeld, Soprano
with June Richards at the piano

Songs of Richard Strauss
Staendchen
Traum durch die Daemmerung
Nacht
Vier Letzte Lieder

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2 2.30 p.m.
through FRIDAY, AUGUST 5

The Theatre

(Admission Free)

INFORMAL SEMINARS ON THE SAVAGE GOD

The director, cast and production staff members will participate in four afternoon discussions of the plays of Arrabal and de Ghelderode performed last week by the SFU Theatre Company. Faculty, staff and students are invited to participate in these discussions.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3 12.45 p.m.

The Theatre

(Admission Free)

LUNCH-HOUR CONCERT

The Golden Age of the Flute:
Virtuoso Music of the Nineteenth Century

ROBERT AITKEN, flute
MARION ROSS, piano

Program:
Pastorale Hongoise (Hungarian Fantasie)
Doppler
Grand Concert No. 3 ... Tulou
Airs de Ballet ... Saint-Saens

This is the final concert on the Lunch-Hour Series for the Summer Semester.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3 8.00 p.m.

The Theatre

SCOPE '66 FILM

Pather Panchali (India 1955)

The first film of Satyajit Ray's Apu Trilogy.
Postponed from July 27.
Admission by Scope membership only.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4 12.45 p.m.

The Theatre

SCOPE '66 LUNCH-HOUR FILM PROGRAM

Program to be announced. Call Local 3514 for information.

Free admission to Scope members.
10¢ admission charge to non-members.

PHYSICS SEMINAR

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3 3.30 p.m.

Room 3003

Speaker: Professor D. ter Haar,
Magdalen College, Oxford
Topic: "The Bloch Equation"

NEWS AT S. F. U.

NOON HOUR LECTURES

Sponsored Jointly by Department of Professional Foundations and Department of History

Professor Gordon Batho, History Department, University of Sheffield, and presently Visiting Professor with the Faculty of Education, U. B. C. , will be visiting this University to give the following noon-hour lectures in Room C9002.

Tuesday, August 2 12.30-1.30	Mary, Queen of Scots: New Light on Her Life and Death
Thursday, August 4 12.30-1.30	An Elizabethan Virtuoso (Earl of Northumberland)
Tuesday, August 9 12.30-1.30	New Dimensions in History Teaching

Professor Batho has been a lecturer with the University of Sheffield since 1956 and is an authority on English history during the 16th and 17th centuries. He is at present writing a biography on the Earl of Northumberland and has also written, inter alia, on Mary, Queen of Scots.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY WELCOME

NEW ARRIVALS IN THE BOOKSTORE

1. McGrath, W. T. (ed.) - Crime and Its Treatment in Canada MacMillan
2. Huntley, Chet - Chet Huntley's News Analysis Pocket Book
3. Robson, E. W. & M. M. - Termites in the Shape of Men:
Common sense versus Pierre Berton North Star
4. Newman, Bernard - Background to Vietnam Signet
5. Larteguy, Jean - The Hounds of Hell Cassell
6. Wiebe, Rudy - First and Vital Candle McClelland & Stewart
7. Wiebe, Rudy - Peace Shall Destroy Many McClelland & Stewart
8. Moon, Samuel (ed.) - One Act: 11 Short Plays of the Modern Theatre Evergreen
9. Bayles, E. E. - Pragmatism in Education Harper & Row
10. Windsor, Kathleen - Forever Amber Signet