

Western Civilization from the Ancient World to the Reformation Era

Humanities 105

Section: D100

Term: 2011 Fall

Instructor: Dr. Paul Dutton

Discussion Topics: HUM 105 is designed to provide students with an understanding of the most important features of western civilization from its origins until the mid-16th century. Religious, intellectual, economic, social and scientific developments as well as political and constitutional changes will be examined.

Grading: 20% - First hour exam

20% - Second hour exam\x09

40%

- Final exam\x09

10%

- Tutorial participation\x09

10% - Writing assignment\x09

Required Texts: Donald Kagan et al., The Western Heritage, Vol. I: To 1715, 10th ed.

Custom Courseware: Package of Primary Sources.

Recommended Texts:

Materials/Supplies:

Prerequisite/Corequisite: None.

Students who have taken HIST 105 prior to 2007 may not take this course for further credit.

Notes: This course is designated B-HUM and meets the Breadth-Humanities undergraduate degree requirements.

This outline is derived from a course outline repository database that was maintained by SFU Student Services and the University's IT Services Department. The database was retired in 2014 and the data migrated to SFU Archives in 2015.